INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

EYE EXHAUSTION

To have your eyes restored from a weak and impoverished condition of eyestrain to perfect and preserved eyesight, must be experienced to be believed.

But the methods employed in doing this must be perfect in every detail and in the hands of an experienced expert.

My twenty years' experience enables me to fit your eyes with those glasses that will give them natural strength and comfort.

To Raise City Taxes to $2.75 Per Hundred

Scarcely had county clerk Sweitzer announced that the taxes for this part of the city would be $5.85 or a decrease of 30 cents per hundred, when the city hall gets busy and will ask the legislature to make laws to enable them to levy a tax of $2.75 instead of $1.10 as at present. It is claimed that unless they can make this addition, they will be compelled to "lay off" a number of employes, and curtail very much in general expense. This is just what the people have been wanting, and demanding, to cut off the useless "deadwood" in the city offices and do away with the "soft snap" political henchman, whose sole work is at the primaries and the polls. Of course every employe of the city demands an increase no matter where the money is to come from, and the budget making will be a real frolic for the politicians if the legislature gives them the privilege of boosting the taxes. If you oppose such a measure, do it now, don't wait until you get your tax bill, write your member of the legislature at Springfield, where they all are now, and protest against this increase.

The Community club of Englewood announces a social meeting to be held at the residence of Mrs. C. S. Deneen, 457 61st Pl., on Tuesday, Jan. 21st. A large attendance is cordially urged to enjoy a delightful program which has been prepared.

The Holy Name society, with offices at 810 Garrick Bldg., 64 W. Randolph St., is out to find positions for the boys being released by the government from the Army and Navy. Many are being placed daily and there are still many positions open. There are branch societies all over Chicago which are co-operating with the central office in this work. Any of these boys who are out of work are invited to call.

Prohibitory Amendment Will Change Englewood

There can be litle doubt that the necessary 36 states will ratify the constitutional amendment making the entire United States "dry," and after July 1st the saloons and liquor stores will be closed. Older Englewood has been "dry" since its organization almost, but that part from Halsted St. west and south of 79th St. has always been "wet." Some claim that the wonderful business center that has grown up at 63rd and Halsted Sts. is due largely to the numerous saloons and liquor stores in the neighborhood, and if these are closed, it means that this trade will scatter, or be distributed over greater territory than the few blocks which almost assume the importance of the "loop" district in Englewood business. At any rate there will be changes as hundreds of the best located store rooms will be for rent to "dry" institutions, and it may have a tendency to lower rents in some localities, and consequently open up new business, as the one time saloon keepers and their employes must seek other means for their livelihood and many of them are excellent business men, and will make their mark in other lines. Probably no part of the city will feel the effect greater than Englewood, and it is a source of wonder as to what the results will be.

Mrs. Albert Baker of 232 61st Pl. who has been quite sick, is improving.

Mrs. Roy Campbell of 62nd St. entertained the C. C. club at her home Thursday afternoon.

NEWS FROM THE RIDGE

Morgan Park, Washington Heights, Beverly Hills, Walden, Longwood and the Southern Suburbs

Miss Marie Kirk, 9900 Malta St., spent the week end in Everett, Ill.

Rev. Clarence Miller, pastor of Prospect Ave. M. E. Church, has recovered from an attack of ptomaine poisoning.

Mrs. T. G. Stack, 1040 104th Pl., visited with Mrs. J. Jeffreys, 17th and Union Ave. last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Turbush, of Milwaukee, Wis., are guests of Mrs. L. Munns, 10318 Loomis St. Harry Munns is expected home from service on Monday.

We want all of our Ridge friends to know that we are interested in their social affairs and we are always glad to publish them.

Mrs. Grace Bradford, 10255 Elizabeth St., retiring president of Wilcox, W. R. C., entertained the color bearers and installing officers at luncheon on Tuesday. Later they attended the public installation held in Valentine's Hall.

Mrs. Geo. E. Gale, 9772 Prospect Ave., entertained the Murray division of Red Cross workers at a social gathering on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Pauline F. Palmer of 9521 Bishop St. is our representative in this locality and may be reached for news, ads or subscriptions by telephoning Beverly 2097.

Mr. Emil Wanek, 10133 Elizabeth St., our pleasant tax collector, is laid up with an injured knee.

Little Robert Jane Hamilton, 9842 Irving Ave., is recovering nicely from her severe fall and an encouraging report was given to us when we called.

The Dorothy Class of the Academy of Our Lady will give an entertainment on Sunday afternoon. Sister Bernedict, Study Hall, Directoress, has gone south for her health.

Mrs. C. E. Mason, 9247 Winchester Ave., has seen the first robin. She says he may be a "left over," but she hopes he is a harbinger of spring. We agree with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stevens, former Ridge residents, now living in Shelby, Mich., are spending a few days in our midst. They were here to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Catherine Weber, 6734 Wentworth Ave.

Mrs. C. Prome, 1944 104th Pl., and her little granddaughter, Raymond Lee Young (Dr. Grandma Prome), held a joint birthday party on Sunday, Jan. 12, and we do not know who was the happier, little 7-year-old Raymond or young (Dr. Grandma Prome. Each received many beautiful gifts and a host of relatives offered congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hickey, 9951 Charles St., welcomed a son last Saturday.

Gerald Tuxford, 10159 Racine Ave., who has been very ill with pneumonia, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Stanley, 1946 104th Pl., has recovered from the influenza. Mrs. Stanley was ill a number of weeks.

When you feel the need of seeing a really good show, send your reservations in to the National.

Miss Hazel Buckler, 10822 Prospect Ave. was given a birthday surprise party on Thursday evening, Jan. 16. All had a delightful time.

The Earl Henderson family, 1531 87th St., returned from their holiday visit in Sycamore, Ill. Mrs. M. Wood and children came with them.

Mrs. Anna B. VanHouten, of Lake Odessa, Mich. is visiting her son and daughter Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Van Houten, 10517 May St.

Miss Ella Hogenhouse, 1016 104th St., enjoyed a party held in honor of her 15th birthday, at the home of her aunt in Mt. Greenwood, Ill.

Mrs. Fred Wachter, 10201 Charles St., entertained informally last Thursday afternoon. Those present thoroughly enjoyed Mrs. Wachter's hospitality.

The Parent-Teacher's Association of the Vanderpoel School will meet this afternoon at half past two. Prof. Harold O. Rugg of the University of Chicago will speak.

Some of our very muddy crossings are being nicely covered with loads of ashes and it feels good not to be obliged to walk along with chunks of mud.

John C. Hamilton, 9320 Winchester Ave., and Henry Smith, 59 W. 111th St., are two of our boys in the Black Hawk division to return from overseas.

John O'Donnell, 1034 104th St., received word that his brother has arrived in Luxenberg, Germany, and will spend the winter and spring months there.

Mrs. Henry, mother of Mrs. H. A. Parker, a former Ridge resident, died in Bradentown, Fla. Body was brought to Chicago and laid to rest in Glen Ellyn, Ill.

Bethany Union Sunday School teachers will hold their monthly dinner this evening. The men will cook the dinner and it promises to be a treat. A program and discussion will follow.

There will be a Community Dance at Ridge Field House, 97th and Wood St. tomorrow evening. Mrs. E. A. Mead, Beverly 2091, has charge of it and will be glad to tell any one about it.

Mr. Wm. Schick has been mustered out of service and he and Mrs. Schick will spend a short time with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bradford, 10255 Elizabeth St., before going to housekeeping.

Mrs. P. Kirk, 9900 Malta St., received a letter from her son Earl, who is in Cochem, Germany. Earl finds the climate, people and surroundings decidedly congenial and seems to be enjoying his tour very much.

Miss Mary Marsh, eighth grade teacher of the Alice L. Barnard School, left for Seattle, Wash., on Monday evening to visit her brother, Mr. A. H. Marsh, a former Ridge resident.

Please send or telephone your items to our correspondent, Mrs. Pauline F. Palmer, 9521 Bishop St. Telephone Beverly 2097. Items must be in by Tuesday evening.

Mrs. H. Bowman, 1329 99th St. entertained the Koalma Club. A shower was given for Miss Frieda Schuster, 1536 105th St., who was married on New Year's Eve to H. C. Ekloff, of the Great Lakes. Mr. Ekloff has not yet been mustered out.

If an item has been omitted, please be patient with the correspondent, editor and printer. There are many loose sheets to handle in making up the paper and occasionally one goes astray, with perhaps an important item on. It is unavoidable, and even the editor must grin and bear it.

Mrs. Sue S. Marsh, Seattle, Wash., former Community resident, died on Jan. 11. Little Mrs. Marsh as she was lovingly called, was very active in all of Bethany Union philanthropic work. She leaves a happy remembrance for those who loved her.

H. R. Conklin, 11333 Longwood Drive, chairman of the Welcome Home committee of the Ridge Patriots' league, has sent out a request to the people of the 77th exemption district to get busy and appoint representatives who will do their part in the big welcome home planned for the boys of this district. Any information desired may be secured by telephoning to Beverly 977, Beverly 368 or Beverly 367.

Mr. J. J. Ward, 9829 Aberdeen St., planned a very unique tree. Unable to get one, he set his wits to work and made a tree which can be used again. Boring holes through a pole, he inserted small round sticks of various lengths to represent branches. These he wound tightly with green tissue paper. He trimmed the yule tide tree with all its usual glittering ornaments and then strung colored electric lights among the branches. It became a thing of beauty and the neighborhood tots found much pleasure in it, and Joseph Jr. was happiest of all.

Sunday evening, January 19th, will be "Men's Night" at South Englewood M. E. church, 87th and Emerald Ave. Sergt. Campbell, a Canadian soldier and the only survivor of his company, will address the men. The women are cordially invited. Let us make this a great evening—7:30 p. m.

The Brotherhood of the S. Englewood M. E. church met on Thursday evening last. The question of Bolsheism together with the future of labor and its relation to the present day tendencies as accentuated by the war, were discussed. The Rev. Clyde McGee gave an able presentation of the above movements as seen in Russia. It was an evening of deep interest and the men received some stimulation for deep thinking.

On Monday morning Master Bert Cleaver of 8832 Emerald Ave. celebrated his fifth birthday very happily in the Ryder school kindergarten. His mother assisted him by serving delicious popcorn balls made from corn grown in their own garden. In the afternoon Master Ralph Wilson of 8842 Wallace St. made all his little classmates very happy by having his fifth birthday celebrated in the kindergarten. Ralph's mother sent the choicest of cookies and candies to all who were present, and those who failed to come that day certainly missed a good time.

A service of special interest for the men of the community is prepared for Sunday evening, the 19th, at 7:30 in the South Englewood M. E. church when Sergt. Campbel, a Canadian soldier and machine gunner, will speak. He is the only survivor of his company and has seen some service with the Canadian army. He has an interesting story to tell of his experiences. Reserved seats will be given to the men attending so that all the men may be seated together in one section if possible. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Come early.

A boy with a bank account doesn't need any recommendation to get a job. Every employer knows he has the "real stuff" in him.

The banking habit should be taught early in life and our Christmas Banking Club teaches it by having a specified sum to deposit each week.

You can start with 1 cent, 2 cents, 5 cents, 10 cents, 50 cents, $1.00, $5.00 or any sum you wish and in fifty weeks have: $12.75, $25.50, $63.75, $127.50, $25.00, $50.00 or $250.00.

Come in and get a bank book and see how small sums banked regularly soon grow to a nice round sum.

You Will Receive 3 Per Cent Interest.

Local and Personal News of Halsted Street and the West

ALL THE NEWS FROM

HALSTED STREET TO WESTERN AVENUE

55th TO 75th STREETS

Preparations are being made for quite a building boom in this part of the town as soon as the weather permits.

Many of our merchants are preparing for clearing sales and it will pay to watch our columns for the next few weeks at least.

If you throw salt in your furnace it will help burn up the soot. We publish this for what it is worth and hope it may in a measure reduce the smoke nuisance.

The Halsted St. State Bank at 6910 Halsted St., tells a most interesting story and gives some wholesome advice in this issue on page 8. It will pay you to read it.

Mr. White, the accomplished sales manager of the W. E. Harmon Co., in the Empress Bldg., on Halsted St., has returned from an extended visit in the south and we understand is preparing to launch a specially "big thing" real estate division sale in "Englefield."

Public Installation of the officers of Englewood Lodge No. 653, Knights of Pythias and Englewood Temple No. 186, Pythian Sisters will be held at Ogden Park Masonic Hall, 6319 Ashland Ave., Friday (this) evening, January 17th, at eight o'clock. An excellent program has been arranged. Members and their friends and families are cordially invited.

Rev. A. C. Hodgson's lecture on "The Amusing Side of a Minister's Life," announced to be delivered at the Marquette Road Baptist Church, on Thursday of next week, Jan. 16, has been postponed on account of the repairing of the church boiler. It is expected that he will give the lecture two weeks later, Thursday, Jan. 30.

The romantic young couple, Earle Mohle of 1902 65th St. and Gladys Higginbotham of 6417 Paulina St., both pupils of the Harper school, have returned home after their attempted elopement. They tried to get married at Columbus Junction, Ia., and were refused and handed over to the police who sent for their parents who brought them home. Gladys is 13 and Earle 15, and if the promise of the parents was kept, both are taking their meals standing up this week.

Prosperous City State Bank

The stockholders of this institution held their annual meeting today and the following officers were elected: Charles Detrick, President; James A. Russell, Vice-President; George A. Airey, Cashier. The directors elected are Charles Detrick, Chairman of the Board, Richard Fitzgerald, George A. Airey, and Ole H. Olson.

The Cashier in making his report showed that this bank made a gain of 40 per cent in deposits over last year. Its net earning on capital invested is 17 per cent; dividends paid 6 per cent with an extra dividend declared of 4 per cent.

Mr. A. Gillespie, 6437 Bishop St., is home on a furlough from San Antonio Texas. He is a cousin of Mrs. Gallagher of Gresham.

Mr. W. L. Stephens and little daughter, 6015 Halsted St., are spending a few days at the old home with his mother in old Missouri.

The American Apron Shop. 6107 Halsted St., have a great apron sale on this week, and are selling them for less than the goods may be purchased elsewhere.

Valentines in every variety to suit taste and purse. Cards appropriate for any event or occasion at Keiner's, 443 W. 63rd St., just east of post office.—Adv.

The Lindblom Technical High School will be open for all classes at the opening in September. It will be a great accommodation to the hundreds who are now compelled to travel over to Stewart Ave. and 62nd St.

The old Clifford Bros. building at Englewood Ave. and Halsted St. has been completely remodeled and made into one of the best business blocks on the street. Even the outside stone walls were sanded and look like new while an elegant modern front has been put in the corner store room.

The public installation of officers of Englewood Lodge 653, Knights of Pythias, and Englewood Temple 186, Pythian Sisters, will be held at Ogden Park Masonic hall, 6319 Ashland Ave., this Friday evening, January 17th. Dancing will follow the program. Members and friends are cordially invited.

Mr. Ray McKee, of 6430 Sangamon St., is ill at his home.

Mrs. Clark Orr, of 6204 Rockwell, are entertained the Lunch Club at her home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stone, 6347 Sangamon St., left last week for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will remain for the winter.

Mrs. John Carney, who died at her home, 6244 Sangamon St., Sunday, was buried Tuesday at Mt. Olivet. Services were at Our Lady of Solace Church.

Fred C. Krome, who died in the military hospital at Eastleigh, England, Oct. 10th, was buried Saturday at Mt. Greenwood. His family lived at 6439 Sangamon St. He was a member of the U. S. Navy.

Mrs. Katherine M. Welch died at her home, 6701 Carpenter St., Thursday and was buried Monday morning at Mt. Olivet. Mass was said at St. Brendan's church.

Casper Hannapel was buried Saturday from his home, 6418 Laflin St. He was 55 years of age. Funeral services were held at St. Raphael's church and interment at St. Marie cemetery.

Another immense new theatre is reported to be built at the northeast corner of 65th and Halsted Sts. It is said that it will be much larger than any now in Englewood and will be built on a scale of magnificence that will make it the envy of any house in Chicago.

Mrs. S. Williams, 6717 Sangamon St., gave a supper in honor of Mr. Williams' niece and nephew, who are to remain in Chicago for a number of months, from New York City. Covers were set for fourteen, supper was served in courses, decorations were pale green and white.

The finance committee of the city council wants the levy of taxes for city purposes raised from $1.10 to $2.75 per hundred dollars of assessment, and will ask the legislature to pass laws to allow it. Will the people stand for the 165 per cent increase robbery? Write your representative or Senator Sadler at Springfield to vote "No" on any such measure.

Lawder Bros., the district agents for the Ford, have opened large sales rooms at 6047-49 Halsted St., and invite all Ford owners to call and get acquainted. They have unusual facilities for handling the popular car and their immense shops at 69th, Vincennes, Perry Aves. and State Sts., give them the heaviest prestage in the automobile line on the south side. ## HARVARD PHOTO PLAY HOUSE

The Harvard, the leading house of central Englewood, is enjoying an unusual after holiday season of prosperity, due no doubt to the excellence of their selection of pictures of the very latest and best producing companies, and the invariable coziness and comfort of the house. The Harvard has become the home theatre of countless numbers of Englewood's best people, and in fact is a rendezvous for the young people who are sure to meet each other there. Manager Coston is an acknowledged authority on the best moving pictures and his selections being made regardless of expense to the house, has made this the most popular and most frequented of any on the south side.

MARGUERITE CLARK in "Little Miss Hoover" A Paramount Picture

At the "Harvard Beautiful" Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 22 and 23

Friday, Jan. 17. Vivian Martin in her latest, "Jane Goes A-Wooing." If you were a stenographer, and chewed gum, and had two twin baby sisters to care for, and a rich man should leave you his fortune, would you destroy the will? Most people would not, but Jane Neill was not like most people. She found that the best things in life come unsolicited.

Saturday, Jan. 18. William Farnum in "For Freedom." Mac Tinee in the Chicago Tribune said: "Here's a chance to see a regular guy in a regular picture." The victim of a plot perpetrated by a presumed friend of his sister, and the situations are developed from the trap into which the sister is led and from the brother's efforts to save her from disgrace. Also a two-act Sunshine comedy, "The Son of a Hun." Matinee only, Pearl White in "The Lightning Raiders."

Sunday, Jan. 19. Charles Ray in his newest play, "String Beans." The ploughboy who wanted to be a poet. The poet from the tall grass was breaking into journalism—and it wasn't as easy as it sounds—but after he exposed the fake cannery scheme it was different. It's a play with a charming blending of humor and thrills. Also a News Weekly and a two-act screaming comedy. Matinee only—Eddie Polo in "The Lure of the Circus."

Monday, Jan. 20. The eminent Japanese actor, Sessue Hayakawa, supported by his delightful wife, Tsuri Aoki, in their latest and most dramatic success, "Bonds of Honor." A charming story full of pathos, romance and intrigue.

Tuesday, Jan. 21. One day only. Alice Brady in "In the Hollow of Her Hand." The story is full of charm and interest, never losing action for one moment. "In the Hollow of Her Hand" was screened under the able direction of Charles Maigne. There is an excellent cast in support of Alice Brady, who never for a minute lets you forget that she has a distinct personality. She is extremely charming and lovable as the innocent young English girl who comes to a strange country alone, only to meet with hardship and trouble.

Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 22 and 23. Dainty little Marguerite Clark in "Little Miss Hoover." The hen won a medal and the girl won a man—in one day! But then—the girl is Marguerite Clark! The girl who has as many admirers as America has motion picture lovers. And that means millions and millions! Are you one of them? You are!

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

A show that exemplifies "Better than it should be" is James E. Cooper's "Trail Hitters," who will come to the Englewood theatre on January 19th for an engagement of one week. This production is in every respect up to the high degree of excellence which is invariably the mark of a Cooper show. That quaint and ingenious comedian, Vic. Plant, heads the comedy ranks, while the second comedy role is filled by that exceedingly droll performer, Bunny Mack. Augusta Lang, a prima donna of first excellence, proves a vocal treat all through the show, while the remainder of the cast consists of Charles Edwards, an all around comedian; Don Trent, an eccentric comedian; Elsie Bostel, an ingenue prima-donna; and Marie Baker, the soubrette. The chorus is composed of the girls that one cannot help raving over. The girls, in short, whom you come back again to see the next night. And the wardrobe which has been furnished for these beauties are the most unique creations and the costliest that are within the possibility of burlesque extravagance. William K. Wells is author of the book and lyrics. Hal Dyson wrote the music and the dances were all put on by Raymond B. Perez. There are three scenes in each act and all represent a scenic extravagance which guarantees beautiful environments for the production. The opening scene of the first act shows Sea Cliff Inn and grounds at Newport; scene two, Lamp Light Lane; scene three, a banquet table at the Inn. Act two presents: At the Country Club; Union Cigar Store, with a big, novel number which gives hte girls a chance to shine.

LINDEN THEATRE

63rd Street at Halsted

The Linden theatre is known both to the public and the profession as the most perfect picture house in town. The excellence of the gold fibre screen, its softening effect and distinct outlines, enables one to see the real living figures—not a mere blur as on cheap screens. The superb orchestra is also noted for producing real concert music appropriate to the play on the screen, and the exhibitor and projection experts commend the two as the very best they visit in their wide circuits.

Friday, Jan. 17. Do you remember the advice Horace Greeley gave the young chap? Tom Moore in "Go West, Young Man." In this case the young tenderfoot from the East took that advice and beat it for the long grass, with the words of his father ringing in his ears: "You are a parasite." He found there not only adventures galore, but love and romance and fun—oh, boy! If you don't believe it just come along and see that happy-go-lucky young Irishman, Tom Moore, in this, his latest and best picture. Also Weekly and a Nestor comedy.

Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 18 and 19. Billie Rhodes in "The Girl of My Dreams," the stage play with a run of 18 months in the Loop. "The Weed" was "just dragged up" in a mountain cabin until one day an incident occurred which changed her whole life. Pretty Billie Rhodes, happy star of picture comedy, makes her debut in comedy drama in "The Girl of My Dreams," a joyful and a forceful picture. "The Weed" is a dainty miss, and you'll be a happier person after you have spent an hour with her. Also Saturday—Mutt & Jeff cartoon and War Review. Also Sunday—L-Ko Comedy.

E. A. R. THEATRE

Friday, Jan. 17. 7 to 11 p. m. Children 10c; adults 15c. William S. Hart in "Branding Broadway." William S. Hart appears in a new setting, new clothes, and a new sort of role. Can you imagine him in evening clothes? And lost on Fifth Avenue? Anyway he had the time of his life when he attempted "Branding Broadway." Vod-a-Vil Movies. "That's Him," Pathe comedy.

Saturday, Jan. 18. 7 to 11 p. m. Children 10c; adults 15c. Matinee 2 and 4 p. m. All seats 10c. "The Lure of the Circus," featuring daring, dashing, reckless Eddie Polo, sensational aerialist and old-time circus star. You'll see big circus acts exactly as you've seen them under the big white tops—funny clowns—and thrilling death defying stunts performed by kings of the rope arenas—great events to delight you and the children here every Saturday afternoon and evening. May Allison in "The Return of Mary."

Sunday, Jan. 19. 5 to 11 p. m. Children 10c; adults 15c. Matinee 2 to 5, all seats 10c. Madge Kennedy in "A Perfect Lady." Miss Kennedy will surprise and delight her many admirers in this well known stage play. Post Travel Pictures. "His Uncle Dudley," Keystone comedy. Added attraction, matinee only, Ruth Roland in "Hands Up," No. 13.

ENRICO CARUSO in "My Cousin" An Artcraft Picture

At the "E. A. R." Tuesday and Wednesday, January 21 and 22

Monday, Jan. 20. Dorothy Dalton in "Quicksands." Only a cabaret singer? Don't you believe it! This girl is trying her best to earn the bread while her husband serves his time on a false charge. And it's no easy job, as you'll learn when you see this picture.

Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 21 and 22. Enrico Caruso in "My Cousin." Enrico Caruso, immortal son of Italy, has acted before all the rulers of the world—Kings, Presidents and Quens—has thrilled by gesture and song ten thousand cities—every bit as great an actor as singer. See him in "My Cousin."

The original "Arizona"—on the stage—thrilled great crowds everywhere for years. With no galloping Lieutenant, no wild prairie, no Douglas Fairbanks!. See it now on the screen! With all these added! See "Arizona" on the screen! The real West! Real cavalry! And "Doug" as the famous Lieutenant hero!

NATIONAL THEATRE

"Peg o' My Heart" at the National Theatre All Next Week

Oliver Morosco's production of "Peg o' My Heart," J. Hartley Manners' comedy of youth, love and laughter which will be the attraction at the National for week beginning Sunday, January 19th, with matinees on Thursday and Saturday, is unquestionably the greatest laughing success in theatrical history.

When Mr. Manners first wrote "Peg o' My Heart" he had some difficulty in finding a manager willing to produce it. Mr. Morosco, a Westerner with an unManhattan outlook on life, discovered that the play was "different," that it was without discussion of the social evil, and the everlasting revamping of capital and labor and likewise eliminated all references to the sexual questions from all of which material for plays had been drawn to the great extent of late. Mr. Morosco saw in the play the relief for which theatregoers have long ben waiting.

"Peg" is a human little person with a child's outlook on life and a child's naive ways. The story concerns a little Irish girl brought up by her father in poverty and suddenly introduced her unconventional American manners—shock her high born relatives and her unfamiliarity of ways of the aristocracy leads to a series of the most laughable situations.

The play is brimful of clever wit and humor; possesses a tremendously human note and a love story of charm and fascination. The producer has mounted the production in lavish style and supplied a cast of more than usual excellence.

His Former Occupation.

The customer in the barber shop suffered in silence a long while, but there are limits to patience even in such places. He asked: "What made you take to haircutting?" The barber blandly replied: "Good money sir. Pays a sight better than hedge trimming, which was my last

Changes in Englewood State Bank Official Staff

It will be of unusual interest to the residents of Englewood to know that Earl K. Stitt, who for many years has been connected with Englewood State Bank as Assistant Cashier and for the last three years had special charge of their Real Estate Bond Department, has decided to retire from banking business and devote his whole time to the selling of bonds

E. K. STITT

He is to be associated with a firm recently organized with offices down town, the title of which will be announced later. His resignation took effect at the bank January 1st With his long experience in banking and bond salesmanship we predict for him success in his new venture.

His retirement left the office of Assistant Cashier vacant, and to fill this vacancy and also to provide for the bank's rapidly growing business, the Board of Directors at their annual meeting last Tuesday appointed as Assistant Cashiers, Ernest E. Hart and William M. Goldsberry

E. E. HART

Mr. Hart was born at Akron, Ind., on a farm, where he lived until he was thirteen years of age. He completed a High School course at Akron and for four years was employed in the Citizens Bank there, where he held the position of Assistant Cashier. He came to Chicago and took a position with the Englewood State Bank in October, 1910, where he has been in various positions, but most of the time as Savings Teller and recently as Chief Clerk also Mr. Hart and wife live at Normal and Englewood Avenues. He is very familiar with all departments of the bank's work and his pleasing personality has won him many friends in Englewood. He is therefore, well qualified for the position to which he has been advanced.

W. M. GOLDSBERRY

Mr. Goldsberry came to Chicago and took a position with the Englewood State Bank as Note Teller last June. He is a native of Iowa, his birth place being Marion from which place he moved to Ottumwa, Iowa, when only five years old. He is a graduate of the Ottumwa High Scohol and completed a two year's course in the Iowa State University at Iowa City. In June, 1916, he took a position with the Ottumwa Savings Bank, where his ready adaptability to the banking business secured for him election as Assistant Cashier in January, 1918.

Mr. Goldsberry was brought to Chicago as a trained bank clerk and put in charge of the Note Teller's Department and also to give especial assistance in credits. He is a man of fine and pleasing personality which has already gained him many friends. He and his wife and Master Jack, one month old, live over in Hyde Park.

With the appointment of these two officials the bank is equipped with a staff that will be able to handle the bank's business to the satisfaction of every customer

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

No more popular house exists in the city than the Marlowe under the management of our good friend "Doc" White. The central location, the large roomy seats, the excellent heating and well ventilating systems all add to its poplarity, and the class of attractions is simply incomparable in their line. Most people grow tired of the continuous picture shows and long for a change, so the genial "Doc" who is himself somewhat of a producer, books a fine line of vaudeville which not only breaks the monotony but keeps the wise ones posted on all that is thought to be amusing and entertaining in the vaudeville world, as all circuits are tapped and the best of all are booked at the Marlowe. It is sudden death for a small town gag or alleged joke to be perpetuated at the Marlowe and the people are used to the real thing the first and best time they appear. Every Friday they have their all star professional revue and also pictures; this is a double show at one admission. On Saturday and Sunday they also have supreme vaudeville and a fine run of the latest pictures, and so on every night of the week will be found to be an attraction that will entertain and amuse you both in pictures and the very best vaudeville. Get the Marlowe habit The prices are always most reasonable from the ordinary 10 cents to the specials at 20 cents, and absolutely no higher at any time.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

If with pleasure you are viewing any work a man is doing,
If you like him; or you love him, tell him now;
Don't withhold your approbation 'till the Parson makes oration
As he lies with snowy lilies o'er his brow;
For, no matter how you shout it, he won't really care about it;
He won't know how many teardrops you have shed,
If you think that praise is due him, now's the time to slip it to him,
For he cannot read his epitaphstone when he's dead.

I don't know if this is a "clue" or not, but the night before Billy Mac's prize chickens were stolen, a mysterious voice came over the office telephone as follows: "Ah say, Mister Casey, kin you alls dun tel' me whar thot ar Billy "Mac" keeps them prize fowls what you dun tole us so much about?" and he was wise enough to look in the directory for the address. Only that "Mac" knows no gentleman of color would lift a chicken, he says this might raise his suspicion.

I don't know who I am going to support for Mayor of Chicago, but I am out right now for "Doc" Phillips for Mayor of Englewood as he carries more of the responsibility of the town on his broad shoulders than any one we know of.

The street car patrons have an experience of "bumping the bumps" every time they ride from Wentworth to Halsted St. Talk about raising the fare to 7 cents, they should be compelled to pay their patrons for riding.

The new calvarymen were out on their first route march, each man carrying half a feed of corn on his saddle. After they had proceeded some distance the sergeant-major noticed that one man had his nosebag in his hand. "Now, then!" shouted the irate non-com, "what are you doing with the nosebag?" "Well, sir," stammered the recruit, "the bag was hanging that loose I was afraid the seed would all fall out!" "Seed!" echoed the sergeant-major, as he nearly exploded with wrath. "Why, what do you think you're riding? A blooming canary?"

He was very much in love and very much in earnest about it, and told the girl, "I tell you, Grace, if your father is unreasonable about our marriage, I shall just put my back to the wall and—" "Yes, I know, Harry," said the wise girl, "just do that, and keep it there if you want to escape alive."

Casey was testifying that a man he had arrested had fought with his wife, blacking her eye hitting her with a tomato. "But," said the Judge, "you don't mean to tell me that hitting his wife with a tomato would cause that black eye?" "Faix Oi do, yer haner, boot Oi forgot to tell yez, the tomato wer in a can."

Casey enjoyed his vacation with a bunch of good fellows who spent their money like drunken sailors and all pretended that they had unlimited resources. The morning came when all were broke and meeting in the hotel office, one said: "Well, I have just written to my banker in Omaha for $1,000." Another said, "Yes, so have I. I wrote to my Chicago banker for $2,000." Casey hesitated a minute and finally said: "Be garry, thot's strange, so hov Oi. Oi wrote fer $30,000, boot Oi don't know who the divil to send the letter to."

Brown met Johnson the other morning hurrying along the street. The latter had a parcel and Brown, always inquisitive, wanted to know what it contained. "Well," said Johnson, "if you must know, I've just bought a pair of gaiters—very nice ones, too." "Where at?" asked Brown. "Oh, I don't know the name, but it's a little shop just down that alley across there," said Johnson. "Ha-ha!" laughed Brown, who always liked his little joke, "then they must be alley gaiters." This so tickled Johnson that he made up his mind that he must tell it to his wife, so on reaching home he burst into the room and laughed until his wife thought he would never stop. She could not make out what on earth was the joke, so Johnson started to tell her. "Ha-ha! he-he! Oh, lor, such a joke. I just met Brown and he asked me what I'd got in my parcel. "I told him I'd bought a new pair of leggings, but didn't know the name of the shop, but it was just down a little court. He immediately made a good joke out of it. He said, 'Good! Then you've got two crocodiles.' What! You can't see it? Well, I'm blest!" said he, as his wife maintained a serious expression. "That's just the worst of women. They can't see a joke when it is staring them in the face. I saw it in a moment. Then he went out into the fresh air, slamming the door as he did so.

Englewood Woman's Club

The Art Department meets Monday morning, Jan. 20. Business meeting in the afternoon, preceded by community singing.

Members of the Sociology Department and their friends met together Monday morning, Jan. 13th, and listened to a very interesting program.

Mrs. Martin Edinger is chairman of this department and at her request reports were given by the following ladies, Mrs. Van Voortees and Mrs. C. H. Brown. The former spoke on the Service League for the handicapped. Everything possible will be done for them, free of expenses, the tuition to be given as long as it is a benefit to them. Public opinion must urge them on, our government offers it and puts its advantages before them. It is hoped the plan will not end with the soldier, not be carried on with the industrial cripple.

The knitting of stump socks is urged, the wool must be bought as no appropriation has been made. No man is eligible to this league unless he is ten per cent disabled. Through the courtesy of Mrs. George Kalk the above report and the outline of the morning subject, "Child Welfare," by Mrs. Ira Couch Wood was procured.

The latter report aforementioned was that of Mrs. Brown, who is chairman of the Child Welfare work in the Englewood Club as well as in the 32nd Ward, gave a splendid report of the work done, with the aid of the Child Welfare Committee of the Club and very able assistants on the outside.

Citing some of the efficient service rendered, although handicapped by the recent epidemic, was follows: Volunteer work at the soup kitchens in various localities in the city, that of preparing food for the sick, and delivering same to various homes. Caring for those ill of influenza and pneumonia in several families.

Measuring and weighing stations are now located in two schools, D. S. Wentworth and Brownell, where pleasant rooms were secured through the kindness of the principals. About 60 babies have been measured and weighed. After the work is completed in the above schools, rooms in the Kershaw and Bass School will be used for the same purpose, for children in that district.

Mrs. Ira Couch Wood, the speaker of the morning was enjoyed. Her subject was "Child Welfare."

Records show an appalling number of children underweight, owing to improper food. Little children have a normal standard of growth, which requires study and care. We must have some standard of health for citizenship as for war. One third of our men are unfit for service. The health of the Nation is the foundation stone on which we build.

The meeting in the afternoon convened at two o'clock. "Columbia the gem of the Ocean," led by Mrs. Roy Rockefeller, was sung by the assembly, which no doubt was the largest that has gathered together this club year and the patriotic song was sung heartily.

Mrs. Raymond Frankhauser gave the poem of the afternoon entitled "After Peace Came," by Edgar Guest. Followed by the reading of the minutes by Mrs. Roy Haynes.

Mrs. Charles S. Clark, president, introduced in a very gracious manner, the artist of the afternoon, Bertha Kunz Baker, dramatic reader, who read an original play which was entitled "Liberty Enlightening the World." Previous to the story, she told how the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor took possession of her imagination. Almost without her will she formed this play. The scenes were laid in Alsace, France, in the year 1872.

Mrs. Baker is the possessor of that which is so essential in public life, a marked personality. Her play was of a dramatic nature and her characters presented were introduced throughout in a most artistic manner. Her interpretation of this work was of the highest type and the afternoon was one of great enjoyment.

Next Monday morning the Art Departemnt will meet, the speaker will be Carl N. Werntz, President of the Academy of Fine Arts. A business meeting in the afternoon with a community sing preceding.

Presentation of Club tickets for admittance will not be necessary, but a glass of jelly is asked by each attending, which will be sent to the wounded soldiers at Ft. Sheridan. 600 glasses of jelly is desired for this drive in the club next Monday.

Englewood Sunday Evening Club

With a full measure of success, the Englewood Sunday evening club is as one of the patrons remarks, "growing better each week," and for next Sunday, January 19th, will introduce one of our neighboring orators, one who has earned commendation from many sources owing to his universally acknowledged eloquence and learning on the important subjects now being discussed by the intellectual world. It will be none other than Dr. Charles W. Gilkey, the popular pastor of Hyde Park Baptist Church, whose subject will be "The New Battle Front."

Knowing Dr. Gilkey as we do, we are sure that the audience will have the pleasure of hearing something new and interesting on the all important subject, as no one we know of is better prepared to treat the subject with the broadness and depth of view as this student of events. It is a safe thing to say that a good house will greet Dr. Gilkey and we would advise going early to secure a good seat as there are no reservations.

Glenwood Preble will introduce as the soloist for the occasion, Clarence Richter, the noted tenor, whose sweet voice has charmed audiences in Chicago for several years. The choir will render some of its choicest selections.

Hamilton Park Woman's Club

On Tuesday afternon the Civics Department of the Hamilton Park Woman's Club, Mrs. Reid, chairman, presented Miss Kate Adams of the City Woman's Club, who spoke on "Pending Legislation." A group of songs was sung by Mrs. Bertha Lotta Sorenson accompanied by Miss Shubert.

On next Tuesday there will be a board meeting at ten o'clock, instruction in Parliamentary law at one o'clock. The afternoon program, which will be in charge of the art and literature department, Mrs. Jackson, chairman, will include interpretive readings by Miss Irene Skinner.

A "bunco" party will be given on Monday afternoon for club members and their friends.

A community meeting will be held tonight at 8:15 o'clock in the assembly hall of the field house. Vocal numbers will be given by Miss Catherine Emerson Mans, Mrs. Thomas D. Winter, second vice-president of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs, will lecture on "Wisdom and Nonsense." The public is cordially invited.
